

LORENZO ALONZI

YEAR OF CALL

1990

EDUCATION

LLB, University of Edinburgh

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Advocate in full-time practice since 1990

Ad Hoc Advocate-Depute for the Crown since 2002

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Criminal Defence
Criminal Appeals
Confiscation of Proceeds of Crime
Human Rights Issues

COURTS/TRIBUNAL EXPERIENCE

High Court of Justiciary (First Instance and Appeal); Court of Session; and Judicial Committee of the Privy Council

SELECTED CASES

Stott and The Advocate General for Scotland -v- Brown 2001 PC 43 :- Appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

APPOINTMENTS & MEMBERSHIPS

Member of the Scottish Criminal Bar Association

Ad Hoc Advocate Depute

LPP Independent Counsel for Serious Fraud Office

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Lorenzo Alonzi has a significant experience in criminal practice at the bar in both first instance and appeal cases. He also prosecutes cases in the High Court as an ad hoc Advocate Depute.

He has appeared in a large number of high profile cases involving Human Rights Issues. He has also been instructed as leading counsel in murder cases and in complex drugs and money-laundering cases. Lorenzo has considerable experience in handling cases of serious sexual offences including cases involving young children and the mentally impaired, and he has acquired a particular expertise in the handling of such cases and in the cross-examination of child and vulnerable adult witnesses.

Lorenzo is fluent in Italian.